

Shot to Moon Is Success

GOLDSTONE, Calif., April 26 (UPI)—The United States scored a major advance in space today when the crippled spacecraft Ranger 4 crash-landed on the far side of the moon.

It was this country's first success in seven attempts to land a piece of hardware on the moon and virtually duplicated the feat of Russia's Lunik 3 which hit the moon Sept. 13, 1959.

A space official called the test another of the long strides in space in the past year.

James E. Webb, head of the national aeronautics and space administration, told newsmen Ranger 4 was much more complete than anything the Soviets had sent up.

Dr. William Pickering, director of NASA's jet propulsion laboratory which built Ranger 4, said that despite the failure of a key electronic system in the spacecraft, the fact it hit the moon gives us confidence we can send instruments to the moon with the accuracy needed.

He said another Ranger to take close-up television pictures of the moon's surface will be launched by the end of the year.

Selective, where Ranger 4 was built, tracked its faint radio beacon on the Mojave Desert 50 miles north of Barstow, Calif.

The first light of dawn was appearing over the desert as Rangers 3 and 4 hit the base of the huge antenna warned ground personnel that operation moon track was in progress.

OAS Stages Raid; Blows Up Aircraft

ALGIERS, Algeria, April 26 (UPI)—Terrorists blew up a four-engine airliner at Algiers' Maktar Blanche airport today and downed a second one in mid-air, killing 11 people in itself despite reinforced security patrols.

Twelve persons were killed and 11 wounded in terrorist incidents across the country by noon, bringing the casualty toll since to 3,950 dead and 8,285 wounded.

Authorities had reinforced police and troop patrols in Algiers to counter indications that Moslems might react violently to the continued terrorism of European expatriates.

A powerful bomb ripped through an American-built Lockheed Constellation owned by Air Algerie parked on the airfield outside Algiers. There were no reports of casualties. Troops in command of the aircraft and armed and unarmed all persons entering or leaving the airport.

Rusk Claims U. S. to Seek Pact on Arms

WASHINGTON, April 26 (UPI)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today the United States will continue to press hard for an end to the arms race while the atmospheric nuclear test arms is going on in the Pacific.

In somber tones Rusk told his Senate colleagues the country respects "the necessity" of new U. S. tests but has no regret over its decision to go ahead.

Rusk gave his views as the Senate Foreign Relations additional test explosions in the series dubbed operation Dominic.

Notice Served

CHICAGO, April 26 (UPI)

The nation's railroads served notice today that they want President Kennedy's administration to make changes in wage and fringe benefit recommendations for 450,000 off-train employees.

"There is no justification for expansion of fringe benefits," the railroads said.

"There is no justification for a wage increase," chief railroad negotiator J. E. Wolfe said.

Wolfe said he would "recommend" the administration to follow the policy set to combat inflation "when there was a threat in other areas."

The world outside the communist bloc reacted today with a minimum of anger to United States resumption of atomic tests in the Pacific. The Russians accused the Americans of bringing mankind to "the abyss of nuclear war" with the new tests. And the official communist New China news agency said the tests herald a new phase in U. S. nuclear arms expansion.

But much of the rest of the world took the new testing calmly, with little violence, few demonstrations and restrained comment.

There were angry words from the West, firm approval from the western allies, and mild disapproval from the neutral and so-called non-aligned nations.

There was an offhand protest from India, which has suffered the devastation of an atomic bomb in war and which is opposed to testing by anyone.

But expected demonstrations by extreme leftists, Japanese students, Tokyo said to have centralized in the city that had been anticipated. There were a few desultory demonstrations there and other Japanese cities directed at the U. S. embassy and consulates. But rain had opened the biggest, planned rally.

Strong police forces guarded the six GOP members of the assembly who were committed to the test. It was also the first time their party colleagues—lay in opposing the administration's proposal without being tagged as against public works.

Sen. Winston L. Prouty, R. N., Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today he does not believe there will be a summit conference in the immediate future because of the lack of time available.

The secretary said that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's recent statement on the principles of peaceful co-existence made it clear that there was a sober realization on all sides that a summit meeting would have to be handled with care.

The secretary also said this was likely to be in the form of an amendment to limit presidentially directed expenditures to 600 million dollars for chronic unemployment areas and to projects authorized by Congress.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, April 26—Several recent developments have forecast the shape of the 1962 congressional election. The 1960 election results and the lines along which the two parties will engage in what could be a historic battle, certain events could bring—a great war, a serious depression, nuclear war, inflation, recession in New York, California and Michigan—to upset today's preview. Barling, such a political earthquake, however, the strategy of the Kennedy-Democratic and the Republican has been fixed and frozen. Every veteran political observer agrees to that analysis.

It is almost unnecessary to predict the Democrats' plan. They will renominate the Kennedy-Johnson ticket, picture the President as the great white knight of the "little people" against "the interests" and appeal to the middle elements which gave him his narrow margin in 1960.

Recent events—and the Kennedy-Blegh clash is not the only determining factor, although a subsidiary one—may even affect the selection of the GOP's presidential nominee. At today's meeting, it may be a conservative or than a "Nixon moderate" or a "Rockefeller liberal."

TIME FOR SHOWDOWN—As of today, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona seems to be leading the race. Governor of Michigan must stand only as an outsider.

Should he win the Michigan gubernatorial, and thereby dethrone Walter P. Reuther as the unofficial political boss of the state, his stock would boost. In fact, it would confirm the belief that Goldwater is likely to become a showman between the forces of liberalism and conservatism. They don't feel that they have had such a test since 1932.

In their condemnation of President Kennedy's crackdown on Big Steel even though they did not condone the price, the 10 most important House Capitol Hill have arranged the party on the side of the business and industrial community.

This does not mean, they insist, on a supreme tie with big business. They will contend that the economy is strong, that small and medium-sized consumers depend upon the well-being of our great industries. After all, they will point out, they have never been able to do before, that more people are employed in the trade and services than in heavy manufacturing.

They are likely to suffer most severely from inflation resulting from excesses on the part of capital or labor.

DELICATE STRATEGY—This will admittedly be a difficult line to sell, but it is the only practical theme for the Republicans. They will appeal over the heads of the unions and management, as President Kennedy went to the people in 1960, to the public.

The other thing happening seemingly support this strategy and also Senator Goldwater's apparent progress in recent weeks. He is the only presidential candidate who has blasted President Kennedy's strict rule without equivocation, even while trying to be the congressional "big brother" to every other part of the administration's legislative program.

An unusually reliable California poll reports that Nixon has fallen behind Gov. Edmund G. Brown for the first time, 42 per cent to 45 per cent, with 13 per cent undecided. The former vice president's lead is modest, but it is more conservative than those who do not belong to the Birch Society, which he has condemned.

To make matters worse, Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel has said that he will not give any help to Nixon in the primary. Mr. Kuchel is assistant majority leader of the Senate, is regarded as an East Bay type of liberal, and is expected to be reelected.

SITUATION IN NEW YORK—A Democratic poll conducted in New York state on behalf of Mayor Wagner has not boosted Governor Rockefeller's position. Although his popularity in New York has held up, the survey indicates a majority in conservative upstate New York, where a Republican must roll up the margin of victory.

Should the reported percentages persist, Democrats figure that Mayor Wagner could have a good chance of winning the governorship. If he agrees to run as the White House wishes, and unless Governor Rockefeller matches or exceeds the 51 per cent of 273,000 that backers hope for in 1964, he will be elected.

The point of Idaho's recent traffic fatalities shouldn't be lost on anyone who drives. Death on the highways is indiscriminate. The unwary and those who ignore ordinary safety practices are inviting injury or death.

IT'S BUILDING UP

Slowly, but surely, the objection to all farm controls is spreading and growing into an election year issue. From all appearances the anti-control move is going to be of major proportions before the primary election on June 5. The resolution against controls, first drafted by 12 angry farmers attending a Knoll Grange meeting, is receiving endorsement after endorsement.

One of the latest Granges to vote support is the Filer Grange, with Master Rex Lancaster declaring, "The time for the farmer to be heard from is now."

Several congressional candidates have gone on record already against agricultural controls and more can be expected to take a definite stand one way or another. Many farmer-voters have indicated they plan to find out personally how each congressional candidate stands on the matter of farm controls. Such determination makes an election issue out of the federal farm program and forces candidates to take a stand.

Perhaps the most significant part of the development is that not a single voice has been raised in protest or opposition. Several Granges have voted approval and the move has been applauded generally. In addition, several candidates have voiced opposition to farm controls, and even-all-other-federal-controls. The reader is led to wonder how outspoken the various candidates would have been in the absence of the Knoll Grange resolution and subsequent developments. But certainly they can't be blamed for clinging on the bandwagon and the net result is the same.

It all serves to demonstrate vividly that it always pays to have the courage of your convictions. Apparently many farmers have shared opposition to controls but weren't aware all their neighbors felt the same way.

Value of Voting

School patrons who voted in Tuesday's trustee election should take special note of the lesson they taught themselves—and then never forget. For that type of election in Twin Falls, the turnout was good, although so far as numbers are concerned, it's doubtful if even a majority of those eligible bothered to cast ballots. Yet the results of the election are quite impressive through comparison with the trustee election in 1951.

Last year, only one trustee was up for election. The incumbent, who had been appointed to fill out a term, was the only candidate listed on the ballot. A total of 45 votes was cast, but 30 of them were write-in ballots and the write-in candidate was elected by the two to one margin.

Again this year, there was a write-in campaign and the write-in candidate received 60 votes, twice as many as were counted after last year's write-in campaign, yet he didn't even come close.

The lesson is simple: It's important to vote in any election.

INDISCRIMINATE

Sudden death waits along every inch of highway and street for the unwary driver who is not convinced that driving an automobile is a fulfilling task requiring undivided attention. A momentary diversion, a split-second of sleepiness, a wild swat at a buzzing bee—all can result in a rending crash and the resulting serious injury or death.

Among its recent traffic fatalities, Idaho has counted an agent of the federal bureau of investigation, the president of the state's Jaycees, and some teen-aged youngsters. In all these cases, investigators reported "loss of control" as the cause of the accidents, yet loss of control goes back to something else. The driver can lose control of the car when he's sleepy, when he's driving too fast or any number of other reasons. So long as he keeps the contributing factors under control, so will the automobile remain under control and the chances of an accident are reduced sharply.

Perhaps one of the greatest factors leading to loss of control is the wide practice of continuing to drive when eyes become heavy and it becomes an effort to keep them open. At the first blink, mind and driver would heed the danger sign and either surrender the steering wheel to someone else, pull off the side of the road or stop for a life-saving cup of coffee.

The point of Idaho's recent traffic fatalities shouldn't be lost on anyone who drives. Death on the highways is indiscriminate. The unwary and those who ignore ordinary safety practices are inviting injury or death.

ICO CONSIDERS THE PLUNGE

The Interstate commerce commission is showing signs of making ready to take the railroad-merger plunge, and we hope it will be encouraged to do so. A staff study has produced a sort of blueprint for the railroads of the future. The East, which has the problem most acute, is followed precisely or not, it could well serve as a general guide, and it is clear by now that increased guidance by the commission is going to be needed.

So far, the ICA has understandably stayed on the quiet side, and the maneuverings because it recalls having suffocated mergers in well-intended red tape in the past. What is wanted of the commission at this point, it seems to us, is something between the approach of 1928, when controls left unregulated, and the controls of 1949, when some 200 railroads entered the railroads. If the railroads can continue to initiate, with continuous gentle pressure from the commission, to see that the public interest is being served, that might prove to be the best solution.

Might have just a wee bit of difficulty getting back to that office, but that's minor.

GHOST STUDENTS

So much has been said about overcrowding in the nation's colleges, it is refreshing to read a dissenting view by a man close to the subject. E. C. Crossland, New York university director of admissions:

"In the professional publication, Dr. Crossland said overcrowding is a myth, a statistical phenomenon. The "rush," he says, was created by these facts:

The typical college applicant files three or four applications to different institutions.

More than half of all applicants are sent to fewer than 10 percent of the colleges and universities.

Thus—"one-hundred-percent enrollment" may become four college applications, but eventually he can become only one college freshman. The overcrowding today is in the admissions office, not the classroom.

The real enough room in the combined enrollment of all American colleges to accommodate any reasonably qualified candidate for admission, he added. Only 20 to 30 of the nation's 2,000 institutions of higher learning have nine qualified applicants that can handle.

The problem of course, is to get prospective students to consider the less crowded institutions.

Now excellent ones are in this group, though they may not have the scholastic "image" or a winning football team.—Montgomery Advertiser

BARRY GOLDWATER

Many Americans were upset to learn, last week, that the United States had submitted a plan to the Geneva disarmament conference calling for the elimination of all nuclear weapons within nine years and their replacement by a United Nations force.

The U.S. rejects the Soviet view that arbitrary time limits can be established in advance for a total program of disarmament. The U.S. would like to take the initiative in the elimination of the missiles and the necessary verification and the necessary stage to stage.

Whether countries determined to proceed from the first to the third stage can do so without other countries were coming with their obligations and whether effective international control had been established.

But it is important to get a clear view of what is going on at Geneva. Mr. Foster's full explanation to me in a letter dated April 6 deserves attention. Here is what he said:

"...the U.S. proposal at Geneva is based on the program for general and complete disarmament in a peace world which President Kennedy proposed on Sept. 25, 1961. This program calls for the reduction of armaments to levels of 10 million men, 10,000 tanks, 10,000 aircraft, 10,000 ships, 10,000 nuclear weapons."

It strikes me that if countries cannot be expected to disarm when the international political atmosphere does not warrant it, then the third and last stage of disarmament cannot be taken.

It is my opinion that every thinking American knows that the present international political atmosphere does not warrant any thought of disarmament by the United States.

How do you stand, sir?

Don't sit on cold, hard surfaces, especially if you are a runner.

If you've got a potbelly, wear a support until you're slimmed down.

Use silk-elastic stockings if you have to stand a lot. If you have to stand for any length of time, pump the blood out of your leg veins by contracting calf muscles (raise on toes) and your thigh muscles. Put on your leggins.

If you sit for any length of time, try to straighten your legs by stretching them out on another chair, but don't cross them because you'll put abnormal pressure on the veins.

If you take too much from cold, wear two pairs of thin stockings. They'll keep you warmer than woolens that are too bulky for comfort.

Families Get Okay to Join Servicemen

WASHINGTON, April 26 (UPI)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara gave out the good news Wednesday—thousands of servicemen in Europe will be permitted with their families after returning from a tour.

McNamara ordered an immediate end to a nearly seven-month ban on government-paid travel of military wives and children to Europe.

The army and air force said it will take about a month to restore the flow of dependents across the Atlantic.

Both services ruled men who have been overseas longest will be the first to have families join them. Families of those who have been abroad will be allotted on the same basis.

The ban was put into effect last Oct. 9 to free ships and planes for movement of 40,000 army reinforcements and supplies to Berlin, where the Western position in Berlin was threatened.

After that movement was completed, the restriction was relaxed to hold down the flow of U.S. gold reserves abroad.

McNamara said the Pentagon's policy is that officers and men serving overseas should not be separated from their families except during emergencies or for short tours.

News Around Idaho

FRUITLAND, April 26 (UPI)—Temperatures dropped below freezing in southwestern Idaho fruit growing areas today and damage was likely to unprotected trees. Harold Harvey, special meteorologist for the U.S. weather bureau here, said lowest temperature reported was 28 degrees, at Emmett.

POCATELLO, April 26 (UPI)—Idaho State college's departments of dental hygiene and nursing will show off their new facilities to the public at an open house from 2:30 to 5 p.m. May 6. The departments, which comprise the division of medical arts, are now in the medical arts building, formerly the LDS institute, but now remodeled and enlarged to serve this new academic purpose.

IDAHO FALLS, April 26 (UPI)—Electrical Products corporation, Portland, Ore., was the apparent low bidder for installing traffic signs on Interstate highway 15 in Bonneville county between the towns of Blackfoot and Idaho Falls. Work on the signs will begin today. The work will entail furnishing and installing delineators, traffic signs, ramp signalization and highway illumination on 16.03 miles of the interstate in Bonneville county.

ST. ANTHONY, April 26 (UPI)—Only one political contest appears for county offices in Fremont county. It was held Thursday. This is the first year for nomination for county commissioners between Garner Simmonson and Donald D. Tripp, both Republicans.

DUBOIS, April 26 (UPI)—The flood threat in the Mud Lake area of Jefferson county and Camas creek in Clark county continue. The water level in the Snake River is 52 feet higher than it was yesterday. Shoshone said Beaver creek, north of Dubois has receded and passed the danger point. The flood situation in the Mud Lake area is the most touchy of all. Mud Lake is rising one-tenth of a foot per day, said the watermaster and is fast approaching flood stage.

BOISE, April 26 (UPI)—An attempt by Attorney Gen. Frank L. Benson to transfer to federal court a test suit involving Idaho's state school endowment funds brought resistance Wednesday from attorneys for the state teachers' retirement system. The suit was brought by Boise attorney Fred S. Sullivan of the retirement system against State Auditor Jim F. Williams. They asked the Idaho supreme court to compel William to make a $100,000 transfer to the retirement system as provided for in 1961 law.

BOISE, April 26 (UPI)—Increased water supplies for irrigation—and other recreational purposes, too, were reported today throughout the state northwest. Harold T. Nelson, Bureau regional director, said that "near normal irrigation water deliveries are expected to be possible on all projects." In addition, Nelson said, that in reservoirs used for water sports the water level probably can be maintained at a satisfactory height much of the summer.

BOISE, April 26 (UPI)—Idaho's official closed fire season begins May 1. State Forester Roger L. Guernsey reports. He noted that after date it will be illegal to start fires within the forests, except at established camp grounds, without first getting a burning permit from the local forest warden.

HATHURSTON, April 26 (UPI)—It took more than a dozen years, 14 bond issue elections and one false start, but construction of a new high school for Lakeland School District No. 235 is well ahead now. Parents of the town have approved a proposed school site change after officials failed to turn up water on property picked after the 14th try since 1948.

The two men, convicted of robbery by a district court jury Nov. 1, were sentenced yesterday by Judge Ward, who is appealing to the supreme court for a new trial.

Fremman and McGuire were convicted of holding up two gas stations and robbing a bank in one at the Magic Valley drugstore, Addison avenue west and Martin street; Sept. 5.

In their request for a new trial, they charge they received "negligent" counsel before, during and after their trial and bearing it.

They claim there was prejudice against them on the part of the jury and Judge Ward, who presided at the trial.

"The jury was not given time to consult with their counsel and prepare an adequate defense, added the evaluation, which was wrongfully individualized and allowed to be used in the trial.

Fremman and McGuire claim they were wrongfully advised of their counsel and presiding judge.

"The jury was not instructed in points of law concerning guilt of one party and innocence of another in a joint indictment," the statement said. "Also, before the trial they were not given an opportunity to say if they were or were not satisfied with their counsel."

The two men were sentenced to 10 to 15 years and transported to the state prison at that time.

Webb, the attorney appointed to represent them before the supreme court, also was appointed to represent them at their trial here.

Appeal Made For Convicts In T.F. Case

Lloyd J. Webb, Twin Falls attorney, has appointed Charles W. Ward to represent William Rufus Freeman, 23, and Jerry McGuire, 21, both Boise, before the Idaho supreme court.

The two men, convicted of robbery by a district court jury Nov. 1, were sentenced yesterday by Judge Ward, who is appealing to the supreme court for a new trial.

Control Lack On Culls Hit By Candidate

By The Associated Press

A Democratic candidate for Idaho governor says Gen. State, spud growers are deeply concerned about the lack of restrictions on oil potatoes for processing.

"This potato growers are ratting this issue only to find that it falls on deaf ears," said Conley Ward, Moscow.

"If no federal program gives relief in this area, I will propose state legislation."

Charles F. Herdman of Salmon, another Democratic gubernatorial candidate, asserted meanwhile that Idaho had 97,000 young people between the ages of 20 and 29 in 1960 but had only 78,000 by 1960.

"What happened?" he asked. "Our bright, Idaho-educated youth have been leaving the state in droves. They seek a future elsewhere."

The problem that state government faces is what to do about Idaho's future."

Republican senatorial candidate John T. Hawley campaigned at McCall recently, calling for a state lottery.

U.S. Senator Frank Church, a candidate for reelection, spoke before the Chamber of Commerce at Lewiston, Idaho.

He said his party "will gain a victory over communism unless those concepts lose all meaning in the aftermath of nuclear war."

Church plans to return to Idaho next week to speak to a number of high schools.

Roberts Is Released Outright by Yankees

NEW YORK, April 26 (UPI)—Robin Roberts, a 234-game winner for the Philadelphia Phillies in the National League, was given his unconditional release Wednesday by the world champion New York Yankees. Roberts, 35-year-old righthander, never threw a ball for the Yankees in the regular season. However, he did appear in five exhibition games and worked 11 innings, allowing 15 hits and eight runs.

The former Phillie, Whiz Kid of the 1950 pennant winners was purchased by the Yanks for $25,000 on Oct. 16. His contract reportedly called for a $20,000 salary.

"It was a gift, a sample," said Roy Hamey, the Yanks' general manager who announced the release. There was press box speculation that Roberts was cut loose at the early date to give him a chance to hook on with some other club.

"I regret that I have not been able to pitch Roberts more," said Manager Ralph Houk. "It is our feeling that he should have every chance to get another job and that is for that reason that we are releasing him at this time."

Roberts packed immediately and left Yankee stadium for his home in Meadowbrook, Pa., near Philadelphia, before the game with the Chicago White Sox.

"I want to play baseball as an active player," he said. "Naturally, I am a little shocked at this release but I think I am still capable of pitching."

Roberts, who won 20 or more games in six straight years from 1948 to 1953, including 1951, was very definite about one thing. He did not plan to retire.

Campaign Funds Are Short As Primary Race Tightens

By RICHARD CHARNOCK
BOISE, April 26 (UPI) — Hanging onto your pocketbook, brother, campaign money is in short supply this year.

With candidates seeking nomination to 11 major state and national offices in Idaho, there just isn't enough of the old ready-to-go around and many of the boys are having to spend their own money.

Money for the primary election is so tight, in fact, that several office seekers are running "do-it-yourself" campaigns.

Free publicity and advice have been sought almost as earnestly as that other cherished goal—votes.

Although some of the hopefuls—particularly the incumbents—and their wives are doing what they can to help raise campaign funds, many are forced to skip some of the trimmings.

Instead of extensive advertising, for instance, they are shaking hands, ringing doorbells and talking to the voters in their natural habitats. They're making out their own schedules, writing their own speeches and even cranking out and personally delivering their own news releases.

Shortages of money in a primary campaign are not unusual. Nobody wants to shell out his hard-earned cash to back a political question man. But this year's candidates, many of whom are novices, even promises of many are hard to come by.

Most of the big money that is around is going, of course, to those seeking the big jobs—governor, senator and congressional incumbents usually have the best chance of getting it. But this season, even some of those running for governor and for Congress are having money problems. There are just too many in the

Among the better-financed of the candidates, aside from the incumbents, seem to be Vernon J.K. Smith and Jack Hawley. At least these two have some paid help to research issues and write copy. Yet supporters of both are soliciting campaign funds every chance they get.

Smith, who advocates local option gambling, seeks the Democratic nomination for state treasurer.

Hawley is after the GOP nomination for U.S. Senate. Both are reported to have well-organized campaign funds.

Stan Frank Church, unopposed for the Democratic renomination, is reported to have a lot of financial support. So is Rep. Ralph Hardin, although he has opposition in the primary election.

Don A. Lutman for the Democratic nomination to second district congress.

Gov. Robert E. Smiley, opposed by George Crookham and E. A.

There were 165,000 acre feet in the reservoir, more than double the capacity last year at this time. The warm weather is keeping up the inflow into the reservoir.

Last year Magic did not fill.

Capacity of the reservoir is approximately 162,000 acre feet.

This is "Sudden Slim," an all-new kind of 4-oz. girdle constructed of science fibers. A startling innovation is the sheer front panel. This is permanently stiffened by a science process and cannot give way.

It features a slimming action border. A feathered panel down each side of this girdle will contour your hips if they are a problem.

The "Sudden Slim" is made of Lyocel, a synthetic fiber that feels like nothing on but has much slimming strength. It gives your figure everything that's possible with a foundation.

"Sudden Slim" is the peak achievement of the designer genius, Oleg.

Be "Sudden Slim" today in either girdle or panty girdle. Call Carroll's Foundation Department, 733-5094. Mrs. Doris Martin, on West Brown and expert practitioner, Ady.
